Philosophy of Awards

Recognition is a tool 4-H leaders can use to help each 4-H member have a satisfying experience in the 4-H program. The question is, “How can we use recognition to encourage the desirable growth and development of 4-H youth?”

4-H volunteers must consider individual differences in meeting the needs of 4-H members. For some 4-H members, competition will inspire creative thinking and encourage them to discover and develop their talents. Competing with achievements will help members develop perspective as they measure themselves against the achievements of others. For some individuals, however, measuring their abilities against the abilities of others may only deepen an existing sense of inferiority. Others may not be interested in competitive efforts but will see value in working cooperatively with others to achieve certain goals.

The following questions are important to keep in mind as you plan your awards program:

- Will all members that participate be allowed some degree of success?
- Will the emphasis be individual efforts toward worthwhile, educational goals or getting ahead of someone else?
- Will the participants know why they won or failed to win?
- Will the focus be learning from competitive experiences or simply collecting awards?

Adults working with young people must make careful choices to create the best learning experiences for all concerned. Observe the following guidelines for effective use of recognition and competition in 4-H educational programs:

- Design and conduct programs of educational value. Competition and recognition, wisely and effectively used, should enhance education.
- Provide possibilities for all participants to succeed by offering classes for different stages of development.
- Plan activities that are satisfying in and of themselves by de-emphasizing competition.
- Avoid applying undue pressure. Participation in a competitive experience or event should always be optional.
- Train judges to recognize that concern for the individual member takes precedence over the award.
- Provide opportunities for young people to evaluate or judge their own work and that of others against standards appropriate to their development and their capabilities.
- Design and conduct learning experiences that help instill in youth a concern for others.
- Realize the real purpose of recognition and competition and their significance to youth should be enhanced by appropriate presentations and publicity.

Oklahoma Report Form General Formatting Guidelines

- Use charts, tables or graphs to illustrate repetitive activities or to show time spent on project work.
- Use short statements to report one-time or short-term activities (include the number of times or the number of participants as appropriate).
- Use short paragraphs to show the impact of an intensive program or to share the details of a research project or career exploration activity.
- Selectively use bold type and/or color for emphasis.
- Remember that everyone does not use the same acronym to describe an activity. For example, the leadership conference held during Fall Break has a different name in each district – use the generic term “Leadership Conference” rather than a specific name.
- Be specific (and honest) about your role in an activity. Did you participate, organize or lead? Was the activity initiated by 4-H or another group? Would those who observed or benefited from the activity think it was carried out by 4-H or some other group?
- Eliminate repetition between sections of the Oklahoma Report Form. In some cases, one aspect of an activity may be project work and another aspect leadership. Differentiate between the two by how you describe your participation. Report project work in Section I-A and leadership in Section II instead of reporting all of the information in both sections.
- Report how you have used your project/leadership skills in other organizations (Church, FFA, FCCLA, FBLA, Boy/Girl Scouts, junior breed associations, etc.) appropriately. This can be done by grouping these activities together in the appropriate sections of the Oklahoma Report Form and clearly identifying them as project-related work done with another group or organization.

The 4-H Story

The purpose of the 4-H story is to allow members to complement the facts and figures reported in the Oklahoma Report Form with their stories of personal growth and the practical aspects of project work that may be hard to report in other sections of the form. The story should not be a reiteration of the Oklahoma Report Form, but instead it should give the reader a sense of who the member is and why 4-H and this project in particular have made a difference to the member, his/her family or his/her community.

The 4-H story should include:

- Maximum of six (6) pages, double spaced
- 8.5 x 11 inch white paper
- Use the following margins for the 4-H Story:
  - Left margin: 1.25 inches
  - Right margin: 0.5 inches
  - Top margin: 0.5 inches
  - Bottom margin: 0.5 inches
- Typed on one side of the paper. No type or font smaller than 12 spaces per inch, 12-point font or six lines per inch.
- Approved fonts: Times New Roman 12, Arial 12, Cambria 12, or Calibri 12
- Scoring: Project Growth – 5 points; Personal Growth – 5 points; Growth as a Leader – 5 points; Application of 4-H Knowledge and Skills – 5 points
The purpose of the photo section of the Oklahoma Report Form is to give 4-H members a chance to visually demonstrate their project work. The photo section has the following guidelines:

- Maximum of three (3) 8.5 x 11 inch pages with for 4 to 6 cropped or 2 to 3 regular-sized pictures per page with descriptive captions. (EXCEPTION: Photography project allows an additional 10 pages of photographs taken in project demonstrating techniques, a variety of photos and information about the photos for a total of 13 pages).

- Photos should show a balance of project work, leadership and citizenship/community service and ideally should be taken over a period of several years.

- If digital photos and text are printed as one document, use high quality matte paper or photo paper for printing. Color reproductions or copies may be used as well.

- Use the following margins for the Photo Section:
  - Left margin: 1.25 inches
  - Right margin: 0.5 inches
  - Top margin: 0.5 inches
  - Bottom margin: 0.5 inches

- Printed on one side of the paper ONLY. No type or font smaller than 12 spaces per inch, 12-point font or six lines per inch.

- Approved fonts: Times New Roman 12, Arial 12, Cambria 12, or Calibri 12

- Scoring: 5 points
The State 4-H Awards Committee recognizes that 4-H members may be active participants in several groups or activities that complement their 4-H project work. 4-H is part of a holistic process that helps to develop life skills in its members. When doing a project record book or applying for any award, the member should strive to honestly and accurately report service, experiences or other project work they have done in the name of 4-H as 4-H work and other experiences that they did as a member of some other youth program as non-4-H work. This in no way diminishes the value of those experiences. If a member is not sure if something fits as 4-H project work, they should use the following test:

“If those who were there and saw, heard or benefited from my actions were asked what organization I was representing, the answer determines whether it should be reported as 4-H or non-4-H work.”

Consider the following example: A 4-H member goes from the 4-H meeting once a month to join his church youth group in singing at a local nursing home. This is not 4-H community service, but instead it is community service done as a member of the church youth group. However, if the member recruits some of his youth group to join the 4-H club in Christmas caroling in local nursing homes, this then is 4-H community service as he is now singing at a 4-H sponsored activity.

The awards committee has developed the following guidelines to help 4-H families with membership in two or more organizations determine if, where and how to report project-related activities conducted in a non-4-H setting:

Work related to the project done through another organization (Church, FFA, FCCLA, FBLA, Boy/Girl Scouts, junior breed associations, etc.) may be appropriately reported as project-related non-4-H work by clearly identifying these activities and grouping them together in each section of the Oklahoma Report Form.

The awards committee also acknowledges that the majority of 4-H project work is done outside the organized club setting, often on an individual basis or in a family setting. This type of work can generally be reported as 4-H project work unless it was completed specifically to earn recognition in another group or organization. Only the member and his/her family know the intent of an activity, and intent governs where project work is reported.

At the 90th State 4-H Roundup in 2011, the Oklahoma 4-H Foundation received its largest single donation to date—a $1,000,000 check, which established the Rule of Law Endowed 4-H Scholarship Fund. This endowment came from unclaimed funds collected during a class action lawsuit, in which the law firm of Burns and Stowers worked with The Honorable Gerald H. Riffe to distribute the money for “cy pres,” or “next best use.” Here is a brief description of the judge’s order that helped create the new funding:

“The Rule of Law Education Fund - The cornerstone of our society is the “Rule of Law”. The Rule of Law is a legal-political regime that guarantees government accountability and protection of rights of individuals through equal access to a transparent and independent judicial system. Our judicial system has numerous safeguards and procedural devices to ensure this equal access and protection. One of those devices is the class action. In 1976, U.S. Supreme Court Justice William Douglas, the longest serving justice in U.S. history, proclaimed, “In our society that is growing in complexity there are bound to be innumerable people who would go begging for justice without the class action. The class action is one of the few legal remedies the small claimant has against those who command the status quo. I would strengthen his hand with the view of creating a system of law that dispenses justice to the lowly as well as to those liberally endowed with power and wealth.” The Rule of Law Education Fund was created by order of the Honorable Gerald H. Riffe, Associate District Judge for the District Court of Beaver County, as part of a class action cy pres distribution for the purpose of advancing the Rule of Law in Oklahoma through the promotion of leadership, citizenship and education of our youth. The Rule of Law Education Fund was made possible through the joint efforts of attorneys Douglas E. Bums and Terry L. Stowers of Bums & Stowers, P.C., Allan DeVore of the DeVore Law Firm, and R. Jamie Kee of Trippet, Kee, Trippet & Parsons, as well as the class representative, Lobo Exploration Company.”

Each year, the 4-H Foundation will use approximately $15,000 of this fund to supplement underfunded scholarships, $10,000 to fund scholarships for graduating seniors, $10,000 to establish educational travel scholarships, and $5,000 to create scholarships for 4-H alumni pursuing an undergraduate degree. See the Project Objectives book for more details regarding this fund.
Pickens Legacy Scholarship Program
The Pickens Legacy Scholarships were created as part of a matching program established by the Oklahoma State University Foundation. Though the donors for these scholarships designated their funds to be used as scholarship endowments for Oklahoma 4-H members, these scholarships are not distributed by the Oklahoma 4-H Foundation and are thus not technically associated with any other scholarships given by Oklahoma 4-H.

The Oklahoma 4-H Youth Development Program does have the authority to choose the recipients of these awards. The application is aligned closely with the Level III & IV Scholarship Application, and it is divided into the same sections as the Level III & IV Scholarship Application. The format of the application and the general rules for completing the application are the same as those for the Oklahoma Report Form, with the differences designated in the guidelines below.

Guidelines

- Those who apply for the Pickens Legacy Scholarships must either be planning to attend Oklahoma State University Stillwater campus or currently enrolled as an OSU student. The application itself and the Project Objectives book give the criteria for each award.

- Applications are due February 1 to the Oklahoma 4-H office. Because the Pickens Legacy Scholarships are given by the OSU Foundation, the application is not due at the same time as all other Oklahoma 4-H Award Applications. Names of the winners are provided to the OSU Foundation by March 1.

- The application should be scanned as one PDF and emailed to ok4h@okstate.edu. The items should be in the following order:
  - Pickens Legacy Scholarship Application and News Information Sheet
  - Current academic transcript from the appropriate institution(s)
  - Letter of recommendation from a teacher, counselor or academic adviser
    - A two-page, double-spaced essay answering the question, “How has 4-H membership influenced my career plans and/or my life?”
  - A headshot photograph of the 4-H member
  - Any additional materials for specific scholarship criteria

- The winners for the Pickens Legacy Scholarships will be chosen by a committee of five people, one from each district and one from the state 4-H office or the Board of Directors for the Oklahoma 4-H Foundation. Unlike other awards given to 4-H members, the recipients of the Pickens Legacy Scholarships will not be required to interview as part of the selection process.

- The winners will be notified by the OSU Foundation and may be recognized by the university in addition to their recognition at State 4-H Roundup.

- Score sheets are available to view at: http://4h.okstate.edu/for-youth/awards

For more information about the Pickens Legacy Scholarships, contact the state 4-H office.
Oklahoma
4-H Hall of Fame &
Blue Award Group
Hall of Fame and Blue Award Group

Purpose
The Oklahoma 4-H Hall of Fame is designed to recognize Oklahoma 4-H’ers who have developed outstanding programs in 4-H projects – including achievement, leadership, citizenship and personal development – and who exemplify the high ideals of 4-H work. Blue Award Group nominees will be selected based on participation and accomplishments in projects and activities.

Eligibility
- Applicants must be a sophomore, junior or senior in high school by September 1 of the current 4-H year.
- A 4-H member may apply for Oklahoma 4-H Hall of Fame until he/she has reach 19 years of age or completed his/her senior year of high school.
- Must have been an active Oklahoma 4-H member for at least 3 years in Oklahoma or another state.
- Must have submitted a record book at the state level for at least 2 years (current year can be included).

Basis for Selection
- A Blue Award Group of not more than 20 4-H’ers will be selected. A score of 75 or higher on written materials is required for inclusion in the Hall of Fame Blue Award Group.
- Record books will be scored by the Hall of Fame judging committee. The committee will narrow the field to no more than 20 4-H’ers. No more than 10 Blue Award Group members will be invited to an interview before a panel of judges. Final selection will be made after the interviews.
- The 4-H Hall of Fame judging committee will consist of four judges, one from each district and one from the state 4-H office or the Oklahoma 4-H Foundation.
- The Hall of Fame judging and interview committees will be composed of Extension personnel, volunteer leaders and former 4-H members. All judges must be 21 years of age or older.
- During the Hall of Fame interview, interviewees must begin with a presentation. The presentation must:
  - Include a PowerPoint presentation, a Prezi presentation or a handout.
  - Be less than seven minutes long.
  - Include the interviewee’s general personal information, major leadership activities, major citizenship activities, most important life skills learned, and future aspirations.
- Because the Hall of Fame interview consists of the added presentation, the overall 4-H Hall of Fame score will be weighted. Forty percent of the overall score will come from the Oklahoma Report Form, and 60 percent will come from the interview.
Required Materials

- Oklahoma Report Form - All of the form should be a summary of all 4-H work, not just a single project. Hall of Fame should be typed in the section for “Project Entered” on page 1. All sections of the Oklahoma Report Form must be included.

- Maximum of six-page 4-H story

- Maximum of three pages of photos

Score Sheets for these awards are located at: http://4h.okstate.edu/for-youth/awards
National 4-H Congress
National 4-H Congress is the flagship event of the 4-H program, typically held the Friday through Tuesday following Thanksgiving each year. Since the 1920s, youth from the United States and its territories have participated in this youth leadership-development conference. National 4-H Congress provides youth a quality, educational, and cross-cultural experience exceeding what any state independently provides. It is designed to address the needs and issues of youth while helping to develop capable, competent and caring citizens.

The program is built upon the Cooperative Extension System’s belief that young people can be significant partners in addressing the issues that face our nation, especially those affecting youth. Each year a national design team of Extension educators, 4-H youth and 4-H adult volunteers, analyze current youth issues and determine the most effective ways to address them. The program combines sessions, seminars, discussion groups and a service learning experience. The nation’s most outstanding community leaders, speakers and educators present the most current and timely information available.

Who Can Attend?
The number of Oklahoma delegates selected will be determined based on funding available. Applicants for National Congress must be in 10th or 11th grade at the time of application with enrollment status as ACTIVE in 4-HOnline. National 4-H Congress can only be awarded once.

Applicants must submit the following items (in a folder) by the published deadline:
- National 4-H Congress Application
- Personal résumé (two page limit)
- Maximum of a six-page 4-H story including project work, citizenship, leadership and personal information (Can be a copy from state record book)
- Applicants may also be interviewed by a selection committee if there are more qualified applicants than Oklahoma can send.

What is the Cost?
Delegates will be expected to pay a portion of the cost of the trip. The Oklahoma 4-H Foundation will provide partial funding. Final costs will be based on transportation costs, lodging costs and registration fees.

Delegates will have until August 1 to confirm attendance and pay their portion of the fees. If a delegate drops out or does not pay the fee prior to that time, an alternate will be offered the trip slot.

All fees are non-refundable.

4-H Interviews
Winners in the state awards program will be selected based on record books and personal interviews.

Record book judging committees will review Level I and Level II project books and score all books. Scores are averaged and the top three books will receive an interview and the 4th-6th place books will be alternates. If a member declines an interview, then the first alternate will be invited to interview and so on down the list of alternates.

A judging committee of four will review and score Hall of Fame books. Scores are averaged. Youth must score an average of 75 points to be eligible for the Blue Award Group. Up to 20 members will be recognized in the Blue Award Group and up to 10 members of the Blue Award Group will interview for Hall of Fame.

Interviews may be conducted for National 4-H Congress if there are more qualified applicants than Oklahoma can send.

The state 4-H office will send letters to 4-H members asking them to confirm if they will participate in the interview. Extension educators will be provided a copy of the letter sent to 4-H members.

To be eligible for awards, members must participate in interview(s) as scheduled.

Project interviews will be approximately 10 minutes long and will cover only the project entered. This will be a comprehensive review of the member’s entire 4-H career. The interviewee will be responsible for all subject matter, up through the current year enrolled. Questions may address the member’s leadership and community service activities in the project entered.

Hall of Fame interviews may last up to 30 minutes and will cover the member’s major project work, leadership and citizenship activities. Seven minutes of the interview will be devoted to the member’s presentation.

Totals of record book scores from the record book judging committee and interview committee scores will be used to determine state winners. Record book score counts 50% and interview score counts 50%. If there is a tie, the interview score will break the tie.

State winners will be announced during the State 4-H Roundup Honor Night Assembly.

Interview committees for project books will consist of three people. The Hall of Fame interview committee will have five members, one from each district and one from the state level.

Committees will be selected from nominations submitted by county and district staff. Nominations for committee members knowledgeable in subject matter will also be requested from Extension specialists. Nominations should be given to the District Program Specialists. Specific forms and job descriptions will be sent out with those requests. This committee will receive orientation training in interview skills, etc., prior to the interviews.

The 4-H program provides a number of opportunities for members to participate in individual interviews – county, district and state awards, trips, and counselor or committee positions. The following information provides some suggestions for making the most of these interviews.
Preparation Yourself

The interview is an opportunity for judges, selection committees or individuals to ask you questions about your 4-H project and your 4-H career. Most interviews on the state level – whether for project awards, scholarships, or special programs – will be 10 minutes in length. The interview portion is used to help determine the extent to which you actually participated in a project, what knowledge and skills were gained and how you handle yourself when asked “tough questions” concerning your project or 4-H activities. Interviews count for half of the selection process (as in project/scholarship awards).

In order to prepare for an interview, the best method is “trial by fire.” The more experiences and practice sessions you have prior to the actual interview, the more relaxed and natural the interview will be. To prepare for the interview, you, your parent, a volunteer and anyone else who helped you with a project should try to anticipate as many questions concerning your project as possible. Some questions will be obvious from the project or procedures you used, while others may take some thought.

Judges will ask questions to determine your understanding of your project and how it relates to other 4-H activities. They may ask questions to determine your understanding and knowledge of the 4-H program on the county or state level. Be prepared to talk about your successes and failures in your project, if and how the project impacts your future goals, and what 4-H has done for you.

The best advice for an interview is to relax and enjoy the experience. Remember, you know more about your project or 4-H career than anyone else. Judges are looking for how comfortable you are with your project and knowledge of the subject matter. Never underestimate the power of a smile – judges are looking for the confidence that says you are enjoying the experience of presenting your project and yourself. Put your best appearance forward at all times.

The more prepared you are, the less anxious you’ll be at the interview.

- Rehearse the interview. Use a full-length mirror to evaluate your posture and gestures while you introduce and seat yourself. Be sure you know how to sit down and stand up from a chair properly.
- Try recording yourself to hear how your voice sounds. Try to speak enthusiastically.
- Practice interviews with your parents or a friend.
- Know how much time will be allowed for the interview.
- If you feel nervous, simply be aware of it and accept it. Most interviewers will be expecting you to be nervous.

Making Yourself Memorable

You can do it. Just remember first impressions count.

- Look the interviewer(s) in the eye.
- Lean slightly forward as you converse. Put one hand over the other.
- Show enthusiasm – low tones convey competence, high tones insecurity.
- Listen actively – respond to what the interviewer says.
- Let the interviewer finish the question before you answer it.
Answering Questions
The interviewer(s) will ask you about yourself, so relax – no one knows you better than you do.
- Remember the first few minutes are important, so try to be as relaxed as possible.
- Plan your introduction beforehand so you are ready to bring up your most outstanding accomplishments and milestones.
- Answer questions directly and honestly. Most interviewers can tell if you are bluffing and don’t really know the answer.

Ending the Interview
The interviewer(s) will usually indicate when the interview session is over. Smile, thank the interviewer(s) for their time and leave the room in a dignified manner. Save the big sigh of relief until you are outside the interview room!

Interview Tips
- Arrive on time
- Shake hands firmly, if offered
- Don’t chew gum
- Keep clothes and hair neat and tasteful; choose “business” attire
- Explain achievements or good characteristics in story form
- Give specific answers
- Don’t be too good for your own good. In other words, don’t act arrogant!
- Be honest

2019 Oklahoma 4-H Awards Handbook 33
Final Award Details
Each individual who receives a 4-H educational award will complete the OKLAHOMA 4-H EDUCATIONAL AWARD AGREEMENT by August 15 of the year named a state project winner or a state scholarship winner. This agreement is given directly to the 4-H member from the Oklahoma 4-H Foundation. It is the responsibility of the member to complete the agreement and return it to the 4-H Foundation by the stated deadline.

It is expected that the recipient of the scholarship(s) will communicate directly with the Oklahoma 4-H Foundation. Inquiries on due dates, items due, etc. should not be made by an Extension educator, parent or sibling! Recipients are now adults and are responsible for following up and completing required documentation on time to manage their scholarship(s).

To qualify and receive the 4-H educational award, the individual must:

1. Complete high school or pass all high school equivalency tests.
2. Enroll as a full-time student at an accredited institution of higher education or technical school during the first eligible semester after high school. (Some scholarships have a requirement of attending Oklahoma State University-Stillwater campus. Those scholarships are not valid at technical schools or other institutions.)
3. All award winners must attend the Breakfast of Champions on the Friday of Roundup. This is when award agreements are distributed and can be signed and returned.
4. Obtain a cumulative grade point of:
   a. 2.0 on a 4.0 scale for Level I, II and III scholarships.
   b. 3.0 on a 4.0 scale for the Pattillo/Graumann, B.A. Pratt, and Tracey Cox scholarships.
5. Submit a transcript of grades, including the semester just completed, and proof of enrollment for the following semester by February 15 for spring disbursement and by September 15 for fall disbursement.
6. Submit the student account number and bursar’s address for check distribution.
7. Submit to the 4-H Foundation a thank you letter(s) to your donor(s), in an unsealed envelope(s). The 4-H Foundation staff will make a copy of the thank you letter(s) for your scholarship file and will mail the original(s) to the donor(s) for you. This thank you note is required before we will distribute the scholarship payment to your bursar account.
Scholarship disbursement will be made per semester, unless an exception is approved. Disbursements will be made in the order the scholarships were won per semester in the awarded amount for that scholarship. The submission process (No. 7 on the previous page) must be repeated until all funds are disbursed. Checks will be made out and sent to the student’s bursar account unless an exception is granted.

The Oklahoma 4-H Foundation will assume the scholarship recipient has enrolled in an institution of higher education the first fall semester after high school graduation and expects the recipient to begin receiving award payments as scheduled unless they have applied for an exception for one of the reasons listed below. Exceptions will be granted only if requested in writing as required below. The executive director of the Oklahoma 4-H Foundation will determine the validity of the request and will accept or deny it based upon the documentation and explanation provided.

- POSTPONED ENROLLMENT: To receive an extension for postponed enrollment, a written explanation detailing the reason for the postponement must be received by the Oklahoma 4-H Foundation by September 15 of the year of high school graduation.

- DELAYED PAYMENT: To delay disbursement of the scholarship, the individual must submit a written request to the Oklahoma 4-H Foundation by the regular deadline for submission of grades for the appropriate semester and submit a copy of their grades for the previous semester and proof of enrollment for the upcoming semester. For example, if an individual received significant freshman and/or sophomore-level scholarships or a full scholarship to a junior college, he/she might wish to defer receipt of 4-H scholarships. Additionally, families taking advantage of tax credits for the first two years of college may wish to defer payment until those tax credits are used. To defer payment for any of these reasons, a written request to the Oklahoma 4-H Foundation is required. Failure to provide this notification will result in forfeiture of the scholarship.

- LOW GRADE EXTENSION: The individual may receive one extension on their scholarship due to low grades. A written request for the extension must be received by the Foundation by the regular deadline for submission of grades for the appropriate semester. Also, the individual must submit a copy of their grades for the previous semester and proof of enrollment for the upcoming semester.

Forfeiture:

Unless the terms of the Oklahoma 4-H Educational Award Agreement are fulfilled, the individual will not be eligible to receive the 4-H Educational Award and will forfeit it.
Exceptions: The Oklahoma 4-H Foundation will assume the scholarship recipient has enrolled in an institution of higher education the first fall semester after high school graduation and is expecting to begin receiving award payments as scheduled unless they have applied for an exception on this form. Exceptions will be granted only if requested on this form. Please see the State 4-H Awards Handbook for a more detailed explanation of the reasons for requesting an exception to the award payment schedule.

Please indicate the type of exception you are applying for and note any deadlines that are included here:

____ Postponement of enrollment to an educational institution (due by September 15 of the year you graduate high school)

____ Delayed Payment of the scholarship for reason of tax benefits or other financial considerations (due by September 15th of the year of high school graduation)

____ Extension for failure to meet the minimum grade requirement of a 2.0 GPA. (due by the deadline that would apply for payment for that academic term)

____ Accelerated payment to accommodate individual or family needs (accelerated payments will not go into effect until the term after the application, unless submitted by September 15 of the year of high school graduation)

In an attached written explanation, please indicate:

• The specific details related to your request for a payment exception. Please provide only the details that are relevant to WHY you are making this request.
• Please indicate specifically how you would prefer to receive your scholarship.
• Provide the specific academic terms for which you would like to receive the funds, and or the amounts you propose to receive if you are asking for acceleration.
