SERVICE PROJECTS  55%

All club/county Service donations and reports are due by Roundup registration to be considered for State Spirit Contest.

CHANGE FOR CHANGE  30%
The total points will be determined by the total collected by the district and the number of counties participating as an individual unit. County donations/report not turned in by the designated time is greatly appreciated but will not be included in the Spirit Contest totals.

POP TAB COLLECTION  25%
The total points will be determined by the total pounds collected by the district and the number of counties participating as an individual unit. Donations/report not turned in by the designated time will not be included in the Spirit Contest totals.

CHANT  10%
The chant content must promote Roundup theme. Presentation of chant will not be determined by creativity, and how clearly the words are understood. No props (includes signs, flags, or anything that must be held or worn), no face paints or noise makers.

STANDARD  10%

4-H Roundup Standard: The Standard will be judged on creativity, design, and depiction of theme – “Building Your 4-H Legacy”
- The finished standard should be no larger than 2 foot by 3 foot.
- No more than $25 can be spent for any materials or supplies used in the construction of the standard. The $25 includes the value of any donations received for construction.
- The standard is due Wednesday morning before the close of registration.

Sidewalk/Street Art  10%

Each district will have a designated space of 5’x5’ outside of Kerr-Drummond. Chalk, container with water, brush/blending sticks, tissue/old cloth and masking tape will be provided. No other equipment or supplies can be used.

Team: District can select Roundup delegates from their district to designing and carrying out the art.

Roundup Competitions  15%

Points will be distributed to each District for every delegate from their district that places 1st in a Roundup competitive event.

Bonus Points:

- Bucket Pass  5%
  Bucket Pass – After the chant contest, buckets will be passed for a last minute “Change for Change” collection. Points will be dispersed on a percentage collected by each district.
