4-H Dog Club Leader Workshop

On June 20, 2015, 9:00am – 4:00pm at the Logan County Fairgrounds, 4-H will be hosting a hands-on 4-H dog club leaders’ workshop for 4-H dog club leaders and those interested in becoming 4-H Dog club leaders. Topics will include basic training philosophies, 4-H dog show competitions, how to start and run a 4-H dog club, games your club can play to make training fun, citizenship project ideas, and other fun dog related activities.

Classes will be taught by Steve Beck, Oklahoma 4-H companion animal program leader, and Alissa Cable, owner/operator of Sit, Stay and Go! dog school.

The workshop costs $12.00/person which includes lunch and snacks. Space is limited to 10 dog and handler teams (a team includes 1 dog and up to 2 handlers) and each county is only guaranteed one team. Additional teams will be listed as alternates and will be allowed to participate if the class does not fill.

To pre-register, your county 4-H educator must submit your name, email, phone number, and county to Martha Hickman, mailto:martha.hickman@okstate.edu or (405) 744-8887, by June 5th.

After registering you will receive additional information but be advised of the following requirements.

1) Handlers must be able to maintain control of their dogs at all times
2) Proof of immunization against rabies (must be vet certified), distemper, adenovirus-parainfluenza, leptospirosis, and parvo virus
3) Only visually health animals will be allowed to stay on the premises (includes external parasite infestations)

For more information contact Steve, mailto:steve.beck@okstate.edu.
