

Private Overnight Information

Where:

2000 Remington Place, Oklahoma City, OK, 73111

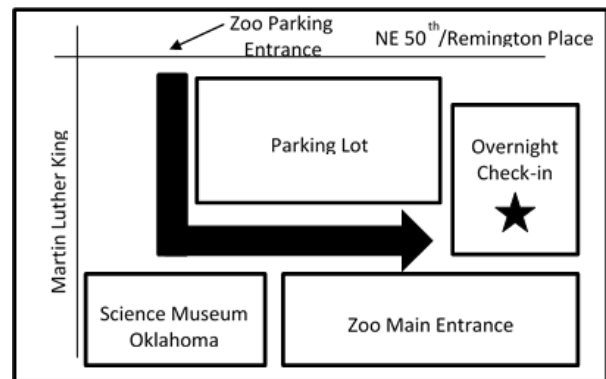

When:

Check-in between 6:45 and 7:00pm.

Program starts between 7:00-7:15pm.

What to Bring:

- Toothbrush/Paste
- Pajamas and a change of clothes for the next day
- No flashlights needed
- Weather Appropriate Gear
- Bedding: Rooms may be hard floors or thinly carpeted, so please bring padding and pillows. Air mattresses are fine, but they take up more space and may cause rooms to be crowded. If you have a queen/king size, consider sharing it with another snoozer.
- Pack light or bring rolling carts to easily move your items from the education building to your on grounds sleeping destination. You could walk up to 10 minutes to make it to your building.

Food:

- Please eat supper before arrival.
- The zoo will provide you with an evening snack and lemonade.
- We will also provide a light breakfast of juice, granola bars, fruit, coffee, etc.
- If you have an allergy, please inform the overnight coordinator prior to the overnight event.
- You may have additional food and drink on zoo grounds after your program but please not during the 7:00pm-9:00am program.

Emergencies:

Zoo security is on-grounds 24 hours a day to monitor safety and weather concerns. The zoo also has tornado shelters. The security department's after-hours emergency number (405) 620-4571.

Other Info:

- By state law, smoking is not permitted, including electronic cigarettes or vaping.
- Weapons are prohibited inside the Rosser Conservation Education Center.
- Adults and chaperones are responsible for the discipline of the group. The snooze staff person facilitates the programming.
- For night hikes, all participants must leave the education building. If not attending hike in its entirety, guests must leave the building until the hike groups returns. Hikes include walking at various inclines.

- Late Comers: have cell-phone contact with someone in your group. You may arrive to find the Education Building doors locked. If the group has already left for the hike (usually 8:30-10:00ish), you may have to wait until their return to get in to the building.
