Each shooter must have their own rifle(s) as we plan to only have One Line of shooters. All participants will be shooting at the same time. No sharing of rifles!

County’s Oklahoma 4-H Certified Rifle Coach MUST attend the contest with 4-H members

- Registrations MUST be completed in 4HOnline by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, October 9th! Registrations received after this time will not be accepted!

- Registration Fee: $16.00. Make checks payable to “4-H Conferences”. An Extension County Agency Account check is to be brought to contest registration. Please email a copy of paper registration form to: terry.nelson@okstate.edu 4-H members must have Active or Pending status in 4HOnline.

- Pre-squared teams will not be changed on the day of the shoot. No additions and/or substitutions will be allowed. If pre-squared team drops below 3 members, participants will shoot as individuals

- 4-H Members MUST have been 14 years of age BEFORE August 1, 2020 to participate in any .22 rifle training or contest. 4-H member must be certified in Air Rifle prior to .22 rifle training

  The three parts of the .22 rifle contest will be weighted so as to make the highest score in one part of the contest equal to the highest scores of the other contest parts.

  Shooters may NOT share a rifle. Each participant must have their own rifle(s).

NOTICE

The Form #1 is a Medical Information and Release Form and Code of Conduct for each individual 4-H participant. Form #1 and contest registration forms should be in possession of respective coaches and leaders. Forms do not need to be submitted at registration time; however, in case of an emergency or accident, the coach/leader should have them easily accessible.

The Form #1: Youth Participation Form can be downloaded from the Oklahoma 4-H web page at: http://4h.okstate.edu under “Events & Activities” then “Forms and Applications”.

The State 4-H Office will secure accident insurance for this event.
