

Showcasing 4-H Entrepreneurs

The 4-H Market Place is an entrepreneurial experience for 4-H members to showcase their business and sell merchandise which is 4-H project related or hand-made.

Through participating in the 4-H Market Place, members may grow in the following areas:

- Financial Management
- Marketing Strategies
- Economic Awareness
- Responsibility
- Communication Skills

The Market Place was introduced in 2011 at the State Parent-Volunteer Conference and has been a great learning experience for youth and volunteers.
